Dallas News Explains Slur Against Hope

Paul Crume's front-page column "Big D" in the Dallas News carried a not-so-amusing slur against the good name of Hope the other day, and J. R. Bemis promptly spotted it and sent The Star's editor a clipping. The editor was remiss about firing an immediate reply, but the matter was well taken care of by other local citizens.

Roy Anderson, local insurance agency head, and G. G. Medders, Hope city manager, both wrote the Dallas News highly-combustible letters. As a result, Crume's entire "Big D" column of Wednesday, March 15, was devoted to extricating himself from the jam he had gotten into with the previous wise-crack. Here is the front-page column in the Dallas News of March 15:

The other day we told of a prisoner who said that his destination after stealing a car, was Hope, Ark. And Justice of the Peace Bill Richburg, who was sitting on the hearing, remarked "That ought to be punishment enough—even if it isn't. I've been to Hope."

It is too bad that the prisoner ever brought this up at all. As a result of the story, the entire City of Hope, Ark., which apparently now resides in Dallas, has descended on us. As the motto says, Hope springs eternal, and you had better learn to dodge. It is worse than the time we got those mockingbird people mad at us, and if Judge Richburg is having the same trouble we are, he is slapping peace bonds on Hope partisans all over the place—all because some prisoner shot off his mouth.

"Have you ever been to Hope?" asks Roy Anderson, a leading insurance man of Guess Where, Ark.

The answer is that we have been to Hope, but we aren't fool enough to go back over there for awhile.

The Hope people, both those who live here and those who gave up Hope, seem to be unsophisticated. They blame this column or Judge Richburg, when actually the prisoner caused the whole thing. All we did was report what happened. All that Judge Richburg did was throw out a few dicta, which has to be done if you intend to stay in the judging business.

Dicta are opinions offered up by the judge which have nothing whatsoever to do with the case before him but which become more legal than his decision. John Marshall started the business, but probably the best dicta spitter was Mr. Justice Holmes. In the middle of an opinion on an insurance case, Mr. Justice Holmes would say something like "People who whistle out to be shot."

A couple of years later, having whistled, you would suddenly find yourself before a firing squad because the dictum had become the fundamental law of the land. Obviously, it is a great strain on a judge to have to keep throwing dicta around all over the place. Probably, Judge Richburg would rather have offered no opinions at all, but he took his job as judge seriously.

If a judge is not to pattern his conduct after John Marshall, whom should he pattern it after?

Luckily, the Hope people have recourse. It will take two or three years for the Richburg dictum on Hope to become the fixed law of the land. They can kill the whole thing by getting through a Constitutional amendment before it happens. So, no harm done.

The Hopeful people had better be better about this sort of thing than writing the kind of letter we got from G. G. Medders, the city manager over there. You would think that managing an important city like Hope would take all his time, but apparently there is something over there that allows him time to write letters about a "crumb named Crume."

Said he about a certain person: "This particular one could possibly be among the Dallas drunks who have cluttered up our police docket."

Let us not get personal about cities, friend. Let us be fair. Dallas drunks do not clutter up police dockets; they grace them.

Rural Residents in the Majority

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rural residents make up 57.2 per cent of Arkansas' population, the Census Bureau said Thursday.

Arkansas is one of 11 states which has less urban than rural residents. The rural total in the 1960 census was 1,020,969 to 785,325 residents for urban areas.

Nationally, 69.9 per cent of the population is urban. The bureau said 75 per cent of Texas' population is urban, the highest figure in the South or Southwest.

Captives Are Released by Congolese

DENNIS NEED

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP) — Thirty missionaries held captive by Congolese soldiers at Kasongo in Kivu Province have been released and have reached safety, the U.N. command announced today.

A U.N. spokesman said the missionaries were freed on the intervention of the Kivu Minister of justice. They made their own way to the U.N. base at Kindu and now are under the protection of U.N. Malayan soldiers, awaiting evacuation to Leopoldville.

The Malayans had sent out patrols to rescue the mission workers but they were freed before the U.N. soldiers arrived.

The United Nations announced Thursday that 23 of the missionaries were Americans but said later their nationality was not clear. U.N. officials in Kindu have been asked to clear up the confusion.

The missionaries were held by troops soldiers loyal to the leftist government of Antoine Gizenga in Stanleyville. They were reported held under house arrest and to have been without food.

The missionaries brought with them alarming stories that a fanatic sect of about 100 pagans whose aim is to "kill all whites" is on the rampage in the Kasongo area.

U.N. sources said an American mission group that arrived earlier in Kindu has indicated that it is ready to go back to its mission station at Kama, in Kivu Province. They include a girl who was rescued by U.N. forces after four Congolese soldiers raped her.

A U.N. spokesman announced the lifting of a brief Congolese blockade of the airport at Coquilhatville, in Equatorial Province, where soldiers loyal to the Leopoldville government and its army chief, Maj. Gen. Joseph Mobutu, are in control.

Elbert Jones, 83, Dies in Shreveport

Elbert Jones, aged 83, a lifelong resident of Hope, died last night in a Veteran's Hospital at Shreveport, La. Mr. Jones was in the plumbing business here for many years. Survivors include his wife.

Funeral arrangements are incomplete and will be announced by Herndon-Cornelius.

U. S. Personal Incomes Drop $700 Million

WASHINGTON (AP)—The personal income of Americans sank $700 million to an annual rate of $405.90 billion annually in February, the Commerce Department reported today.

The sag reflecting a drop of nearly a billion in payments of wages and salaries from the January rate, gave no comfort to government economists looking for the bottom of the recession.

It ran counter to earlier economic reports in February which showed a rise in retail sales, home building and steel production, and a leveling-off of over-all industrial output after an uninterrupted six-month decline.

The Federal Reserve Board, reporting Thursday on the industrial output situation, said the figures amounted to the first sign that the recession has reached bottom or is close to it.

The drop in wage and salary payments and dividend income last month was only partly offset by a slight gain in farmers' income and a rise of $200 million in unemployment compensation benefits and other so-called "transfer payments" from government trust funds.

The income total was $10 billion, or 2 1/2 per cent, above that for February 1960, the department said, but $4 billion less than the peak of nearly $410 billion a year reached last October.

About half the drop occurred in manufacturing, with most of the decrease attributed to substantial cutbacks in plants producing autos and other transportation equipment and in the fabricated metals industries.

This was exactly opposite to the trend for which private and government economists had been hoping. The rate of decline in a number of key indexes had slowed or halted in February, leading officials to believe that the trough of the recession was being—or had been reached.

This still could be the case, officials noted today, since the payroll declines shown in the February report could have been the result of poor midwinter sales; a pickup in sales demand with the arrival of better weather could bring about new hiring.

The Federal Reserve report was the brightest showing for any major indicator in recent months.

U. S. Told to Give Up Base

NEW YORK (AP)—King Saud's decision that the United States must give up its air base rights at Dhahran next year will not have any effect on oil shipments from Saudi Arabia.

This was the opinion today of oil experts who pointed out that oil has been shipped out of Saudi Arabia by tanker and by pipeline.

One spokesman said "since the decision appears aimed at military use of the airfield, it is likely that the base will still be used for the transportation of civilian employees of oil firms."

$550,000 for Tornado Areas

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy reported Thursday that the federal government authorized allocations totalling $13,185,000 to 10 states for 12 major disasters during 1960. Allocations included: Arkansas, tornadoes and floods $550,000.

Nails Tossed in Pine Bluff Strike Fuss

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP)—The president of the struck Central Transformer Co., Frank Newcombe, said today that roofing nails had been scattered over the firm's parking lot Thursday night.

Newcombe also said that two Central employees had been chased by men in cars while on the way home from work Thursday. About two handfuls of nails were thrown on the parking lot, he said.

Carl D. Swims, president of International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers Local 1658, said he had no knowledge of the incidents and "our members are not in any way participating in any violence now nor will they ever do so."

Newcombe said the incidents had not been reported to police but he said some individual employees may seek police protection. The union went on strike Monday. Its old contract expired Feb. 13 and negotiations failed to produce a new agreement.

Swims said the union "sole concern is to pursue our own business and our own rights by peaceful picketing."

Union and management representatives are scheduled to resume negotiations next Wednesday.

Pillsbury Co. Executives Escape Crash

POMPANNO BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Thirteen occupants of a Pillsbury Co. executive plane escaped injury in an aerial collision that killed two Pompanno Beach men in another craft.

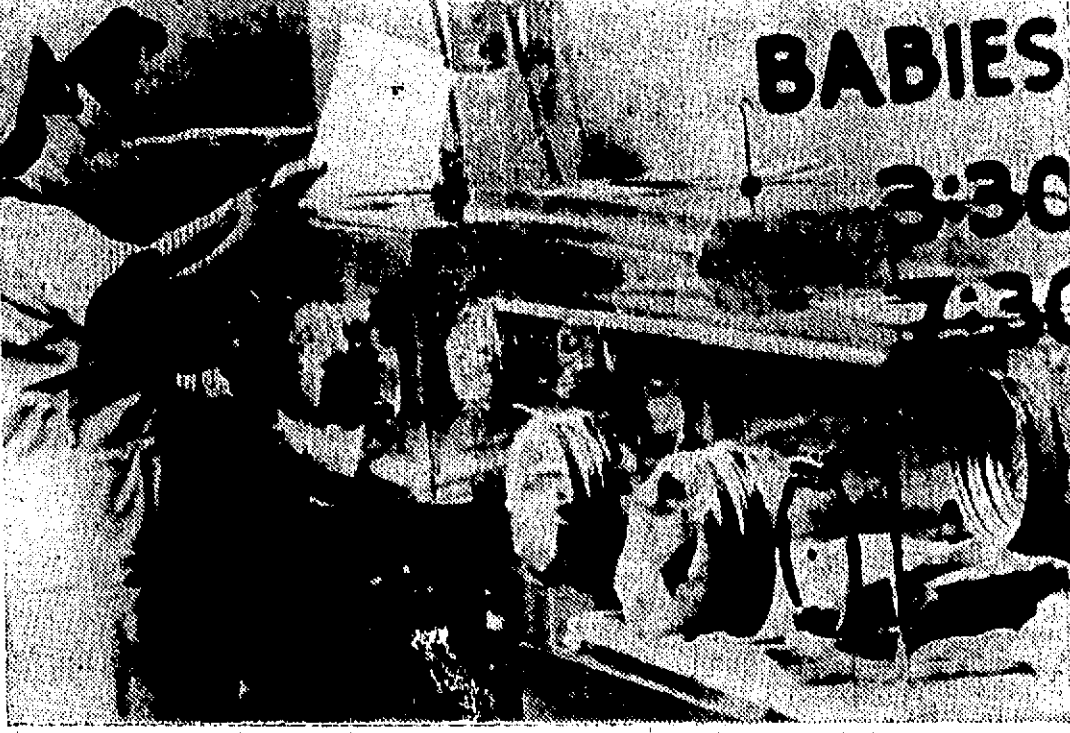

"We thought at first we had just made a rough landing," said George F. Pillsbury, vice president of the company, "until we saw the other plane. It was terrible."

Jack Fountain, 30, a boat builder, and Daniel Nichols, 27, an electrician, were killed in the crash 75 feet over the airport.

The Pillsbury twin-propeller plane was coming in for a landing when it collided with the other, single-engine craft.

"Honestly, we didn't know what happened," Pillsbury said. "No one was thrown out of his seat—no one was hurt. We weren't aware of what had happened until we came to a stop and the pilots told us."

Others in the executive plane were Pillsbury's wife and four children; Robert J. Keith, vice president of the firm, his wife and two children; a nurse, and pilots Jim Grogan and Jim Willette. The party flew here nonstop from Minneapolis.

QUADRUPLETS—Nurses at Delaware County Memorial Hospital in Upper Darby, Pa., chart progress of quadruplet girls born to Mr. and Mrs. William Cutalar of Malvern, Pa. The girls, born six weeks premature, are in incubators, one shown at lower right, and are "doing fine" according to hospital authorities. Mrs. Cutalar, who won the Miss Delaware County beauty title in 1955, and chosen as a high school beauty, was the calmest person in the hospital. She has two sons. — NEA Telephoto

HISS—HISS—WHEN OFFICIALS DECIDED to try out the miniature train at the Cincinnati Children's Zoo they discovered that a goose from the Zoo's wild fowl pond had laid four eggs in a nest between the track rails. The goose hissed angrily at the train as it approached the nest. — NEA Telephoto

Police Car Wrecks in Emergency

A City Police patrol car leading an emergency case into town dodged a loaded cross-tie truck at the Pine and Third Street intersection but plunged into a telephone pole about 3 p.m. yesterday.

Patrolman Reid Clark, riding alone, escaped injury. The police car dodged the truck which pulled into its path but when Officer Clark applied the brakes the vehicle swerved into a telephone pole. The police car was heavily damaged and the telephone pole was broken in several places.

According to investigating Officers Willis, Sinyard, Ward and Chief Brown the truck, driven by Bobby Ware, 21, failed to stop, although the police car siren was on. The officers charged Ware with driving without proper brakes and without a muffler.

A second police car escorted the emergency case on into town to Dr. Harris' office. There was a mixup on the emergency. Officers thought they were escorting the R. A. Bennett family of Texarkana to a doctor's office so their baby could be treated. They discovered later they were escorting only Mr. Bennett who had been called by his wife. Seems Mrs. Bennett and the baby were visiting relatives here and the child accidentally got caught in its eyes. Fortunately, the emergency treatment here was administered before permanent damage could result.

Train, Car Crash at MOP Crossing

Franklin Garrett of Hope escaped injury this morning when a Missouri Pacific switch engine and a car collided at the Walnut Street Crossing at 4:30 a.m.

Officers Shirley, Martin and Hollis investigated and report damage to the auto's fender and bumper.

Settlement in Insurance Case

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Mrs. G. W. McAuley of Forrest City and Lloyd's of London have settled litigation over a $100,000 insurance policy which McAuley held with Lloyd's when he was killed in a plane crash on Nov. 20, 1959.

Notice of the settlement was filed in U.S. District Court here. Terms were not disclosed. The lawsuit was dismissed by Judge Gordon E. Young at request of the parties.

McAuley and his father-in-law, O. N. Warren of Forrest City, were killed when their light plane crashed near Bowling Green, Ky., where they had gone to look after some oil wells.

Mrs. McAuley filed suit against Lloyd's over the insurance policy, of which she was beneficiary.

The firm said the policy did not apply if McAuley was piloting the plane.

Mrs. McAuley said her father, Warren, was the pilot.

Governor Will Veto License Tag Increase

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A bill to set flat $15 and $22 prices for automobile license tags will be vetoed by Gov. Orval E. Faubus he said today.

He told a news conference he would disapprove the measure during the day because there is a question whether it passed the House legally.

The bill got a one-vote majority in the House and Pike County Rep. Alvis Stokes said later someone else had illegally cast his vote for the bill.

There also was a question as to whether the bill, since it is a revenue measure, needed 75 votes to pass. It got only 51, counting Stokes.

"I don't think the bill means a great deal revenue-wise," Faubus said, "but it would have simplified the work in the Revenue Department."

The bill would have set a $15 fee for cars under 4,100 pounds and $22 for cars above that weight. License fees are computed under a horsepower-weight-passenger capacity formula. Prices range from $4 to $28 with most late-model cars falling in a $7 to $25 range.

Faubus Thursday signed 51 bills into law. He vetoed 17.

Wants to Up Mail Rates One Cent

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Kennedy administration wants a one-cent increase in the present postage rates for letters, postcards and airmail and boosts for other classes of mail.

Ralph W. Nicholson, assistant postmaster general-designate for finance, said Thursday the request for the across-the-board increase would be made soon, aimed at bringing in an additional $834 million a year.

Nicholson said the increased rate for letters, postcards and airmail would bring in an estimated $420 million, while the other boosts would bring in another $401 million.

He presented the plan to the Senate Appropriations Committee Thursday.

Lindsay H. Noble, deputy assistant postmaster general, said the post office deficit for the 1962 fiscal year, starting July 1, now is estimated at $831 million—just the amount of the proposed increases.

Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower had asked for similar rate increases.

Noble said the department figures $344 million of the anticipated deficit is accounted for by second-class mail, magazines and newspapers; $21 million by third-class mail, largely advertising circulars; and $113 million by fourth-class mail, parcel post.

Sen. A. Willis Robertson, D-Va., asked what percentage of the loss on second-class mail is attributable to newspapers.

Noble said about one-fourth is due to daily newspapers, and about one-third counting all newspapers.

Kills a Bobcat

CONWAY, Ark. (AP) — Calvin Partee, living in a rural area near Quitman, reported today that he killed a 22-pound bobcat outside his home Thursday night.

Partee said he heard a noise at the door. He opened it and saw the cat. He said he kicked the animal in the face, slammed the door and got a shotgun.

Partee's two dogs cornered the bobcat, and Partee fired through a crack in the door.

Partee was not injured. Neither were the dogs.

Partee said bobcats still are fairly common in the area.

Quitman is about 25 miles north east of Conway on the Fahlkner-Cleburne County line. Partee lives in Faulkner County.

Police Car Meets Telephone Post

MIDAFTERNOON YESTERDAY A CITY Police car driven by Officer Reid Clark dodged a truck which had pulled into its path during an emergency run and slammed into a telephone pole at Third and Pine Streets. Nobody was injured. The car is shown being towed away by a wrecker.

matter of FACT
American town names are often unusual. We have Truth or Consequences, New Mexico; Twenty-nine Palms, California; and Thistle, Utah. Then there is a tiny village in Maryland named for a colonial landowner. Thomas Brooke marked his property with stones initialed "T.B." The village is still called T.B.

Negroes in Majority
WASHINGTON (AP) — The nation's capital is the only major American city where Negroes form a majority of the population, the Census Bureau said today.
The agency said preliminary data from the 1960 census shows that 411,737, or 53.9 per cent, of Washington's 763,956 residents are Negroes.
New York City has the largest number of Negroes, 1,087,931 or 14 per cent of the total population of 7,781,954.

Somehow, We Don't Think We'll Make It

(Charleston, W. Va., Daily Mail)
In what is undoubtedly meant for a cheering word, the American Medical Association announces that soon we will all live as long as the Hunzuktus. The Hunzuktus are Pakistani tribesmen who live in the Himalayas and regularly reach the ripe old age of 120 and even 140 years.

Somehow we do not find this prospect as bright as the doctors seem to think we should. One hundred and 20 years would expand the present life expectancy by about 50. This would mean another 50 dates with the Collector of Internal Revenue, 12 or more national conventions and campaigns, countless sessions of the General Assembly, another half century of trying to beat the five o'clock traffic jam, and endlessly prolonged struggle with the alarm clock and a continuing argument with the politicians, trying to persuade them that we really don't need all the things they are planning to "give" us if we will just consent to work for the government all the time.
The Hunzuktus of Pakistan are not bothered with such things. And that, of course, is why they live to 120 years without half trying.

Rockefeller Asks Tax Be Dropped

WASHINGTON (AP) — Millionaire Winthrop Rockefeller has asked the U. S. Tax Court to cancel an Internal Revenue Service claim that he owes $48,747 additional income tax for the years 1954-55.

The Rockefeller suit showed that for those years he reported taxable income of $7,825,757, much of it in long-term capital gains, and paid taxes totaling $4,715,795 on that amount.

The dispute over the $48,747 largely involved differences over bookkeeping.
Internal Revenue Service contended that $53,444 paid to the Union National Bank of Little Rock, Ark., for handling sales of Secony-Vacuum Oil Co. stock in 1954 and 1955 should have been "treated as offsets against the sell in price."
Rockefeller, who lives near Morrilton, Ark., contended these were deductible expenses for brokerage service.
The tax service also said certain payments made to the Winthrop Rockefeller Trust in 1955 represented non-deductible capital expenditures, whereas Rockefeller claims they covered deductible expenses for legal and many other services rendered to the trust.
There was also a 1955 write-off of $14,800 as "a business bad debt" in connection with a loan made to the firm of Gogi, Inc., of New York. The tax service contended this was not a business transaction.

Windstorm
Sweeps Over
N. Little Rock

NORTH LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A brief but sharp windstorm swept over the North Little Rock area today, knocking out electric power to more than 1,500 homes.

Service was restored to nearly all customers within three hours after the sudden wind, with gusts up to 50 miles an hour, passed.
The U.S. Weather Bureau recorded a sharp drop in barometric pressure during the windstorm and a spokesman said the storm, part of a front moving across Arkansas, was "close to a tornado."

It was not a tornado, he added, but had similarities in its suddenness and sharply dipping barometric pressure.

A few trees were blown down and there were reports of minor damage to some houses.
Spokesmen for Arkansas Power & Light Co. and the North Little Rock Electric Department said falling trees and limbs caused much of the trouble. North Little Rock's major trouble was caused by a lightning arrester which fell on a primary circuit, disrupting power to about 1,500 customers.
An undetermined number of AP&L customers also were affected.

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—After

is an authority on frogs.

plains the man who began han-

McKinley to Get Post of Postmaster

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Congressman Dale Aford said today that Ed L. McKinley, Jr., a controversial former president of the Little Rock School Board, would become acting postmaster here, effective May 1.

McKinley was head of the board for several months during the height of the Little Rock integration controversy.

He and two other segregationist members were ousted in a recent election in 1959. Voters retained three moderates, who are still on the board.

McKinley's prospective appointment, first reported several days ago, had been opposed by I. S.
McClinton, president of the Arkansas Democratic Voters Association a Negro group.

An acting postmaster may serve as much as six months and also is eligible for a permanent appointment.

McClinton, a lawyer and banker, once was Arkansas bank commissioner.

Postmaster I. C. Bellville, a career employee, is retiring coincident with McKinley's appointment.

GM Official
Sentenced
Quits Post

NEW YORK (AP)—William S.
Ginn, General Electric Co. executive who recently served a jail sentence along with other officials of electrical firms as a result of an antitrust case, resigned Thursday.

"It is my conclusion that current circumstances and, in particular, the relentless publicity involved has severely limited my efficiency in my recent position or any other management position with the General Electric Co.," Ginn said in a letter to the company.

Ginn, 45, was vice president and general manager of GE's turbine division.

Ginn was one of seven executives of 29 electrical firms who went to prison in the price-fixing and bid-rigging conspiracy. All were released after serving 25 or 30 days of 30-day sentences.

The two other GE executives who also went to jail were Lewis
J. Burger, 48, Fort Wayne, Ind., and George E. Burens, Cleveland, Ohio.

Burger and Burens had been demoted before the antitrust case came to trial in U.S. District Court at Philadelphia.

Violence in Tennessee
Race Trouble

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

An elderly white woman was knocked down and a Negro Episcopal rector slugged during an outbreak of racial violence at Chattanooga, Tenn., where Negroes for five weeks have been staging stand-ins protesting segregated theaters.

Bands of Negro and white youths roamed the streets after nine Negroes were arrested on charges of disorderly conduct at a motion picture house Thursday.
The manager said the nine each tried 14 times to buy tickets and were blocking the entrance.

Police broke up one group of white youths armed with sticks as they roved downtown.

Miss Lillie Trotter, 38, said she was bowled over by Negroes chasing white youths. The groups were hurling rocks and garbage cans at each other. Miss Trotter suffered cuts and head bruises, but her condition was not believed serious. None of the youths was injured.

Police said an ex-convict slugged the Rev. Robert Hunter, rector of St. Mary's Episcopal church—a Negro parish—while Hunter was watching the stand-in demonstration. Harry Light, 34, was charged with assault and battery in the case.

At Columbia, S.C., 36 Negroes were convicted of breach of the peace charges in connection with a mass march on the statehouse two weeks ago during which 190 persons were arrested. All filed notice of intention to appeal.
Ten of those convicted were Writes Cards in Shorthand LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Every day for 25 1/2 years Mrs. Edward Dodd has written a postcard to a member of her family, most of them in shorthand.

"It's no chore. There's plenty to say, and postcards are cheap and convenient," she explained. One sister in Somerset, Mrs. Edwin Roberts, replies in shorthand.

Mrs. Dodd's husband buys the cards 500 at a time, but he'll have to increase the order next year. Their daughter leaves for college and she plans to learn shorthand "so I can send notes home in code."

Wholesaler Is Fined $300 LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Helena Wholesale, Inc., was fined $300 in federal District Court here Thursday after pleading guilty to a charge of holding food under unsanitary conditions.

The wholesale grocery firm was prosecuted under the pure food and drug laws for storing three shipments of flour in a building infested with rodents in late 1959 and early 1960.

Sues a Hospital SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—Norman J. Waldman filed a $100,000 suit against Santa Rosa Hospital Thursday. He said that while a patient at the hospital he had been burned by an electric blanket.

This Is Day for the Irish Over Nation

EDITOR'S NOTE — The following byline is the real McCoy.

By IRISH DONNELLY NEW YORK (AP) — Glorious was the word of the Irish for this St. Patrick's Day.

The annual celebration in honor of Ireland's patron saint set Gaelic hearts singing.

Adding a heady ingredient was the fact they're in command at the White House.

And that's no blarney, for isn't President John Fitzgerald Kennedy one of their very own?

So the wearers of the green were in a strutting mood as 60 battalions of marching groups—120,000 strong—were lining up 16 abreast for the 2.5-mile, 6-hour parade up Fifth Avenue.

Among the marchers: 86 bands, 6 drum and bugle corps, a pipe and drum corps, an Irish warpipe band, 2 drum corps, 9 fife and drum corps, a bugle corps, 3 fife, drum and bugle corps and 14 pipe bands.

The fashionable avenue was divided by a green traffic stripe that extended from Washington Square to 110th Street.

The grand marshal was John T. (Pat) Clancy, Queens borough president and "of the blood"—a requirement for the exalted post.

Francis Cardinal Spellman and other church dignitaries were to view the parade from the steps of St. Patrick's Cathedral.

There were seats in the official reviewing stand at 64th street and Fifth Avenue for Willy Brandt, mayor of West Berlin; Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller; Mayor Robert F. Wagner; the Rev. Laurence J. McGinley, S. J. President of Fordham University; Dr. Thomas J. Kiernan, Irish ambassador to the United States; Frederick H. Boland, Ireland's representative to the United Nations and U.N. assembly president; and Frank Aiken, Irish minister of external affairs.

The sons of Erin proclaim their parade the largest and greatest in the world.

It's sponsored by the Ancient Order of Hibernians in America, and nothing is permitted that would detract from Irish dignity. Vehicles and floats are banned.

Legality of Construction Bill Checked LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Arkansas Education Association attorneys are checking on constitutionality of Gov. Orval E. Faubus' $17 million omnibus construction laws, and court action challenging the measure apparently could result.

Forrest Rozzell, executive secretary of the AEA, confirmed that attorneys were at work on the measure but he wouldn't say what opinion, if any, they had reached. He said he would report to the regular AEA board meeting Saturday.

The AEA did not favor the omnibus bill when it went through the Legislature. Faubus signed it into law Wednesday. The governor added a late amendment for a $2 million boost in teachers' salaries.

Sen. Roy Milum of Harrison said he opposed the bill in the Senate on constitutional grounds. A constitutional provision says that except for constitutional offices and courts, all appropriations shall be made by separate bills. He said the some 30 items in the Faubus measure violate this provision.

Community in Clark Co. Wins LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Rural Community of the Year award has gone to the Trinity community in Clark County.

Hopewell in Greene County was second and Hattiesville in Conway County was third, in results announced Thursday night at the annual Rural Community Improvement Conference here.

Mobile Bears Have Solved Big Problem

MOBILE, Ala. (AP)—The Mobile Bears have solved one of their biggest problems but others remain to be settled before the Southern Association season opens in three weeks.

A major league working agreement was announced Thursday night and club officials said it assured Mobile of keeping its franchise in the Southern. The agreement is with the recently organized New York team in the National League.

Since the New York team will not enter competition until 1962 virtually all its help to Mobile this year will be financial.

The Bears still have to find a field manager and several players. The roster contains 16 players, most of them left when the Cleveland Indians of the American League ended their working agreement with Mobile last season.

Bet Scandal Hits College Cage Team

NEW YORK (AP)—Two men were arrested today in a new outbreak of college basketball betting scandals reminiscent of the bribe cases of 1951.

The district attorney's office announced the arrests grew out of an inquiry into two games—the Colgate-University of Connecticut game at Hamilton, N. Y. March 1 and the Seton Hall-Dayton game Feb. 9 at New York's Madison Square Garden.

Peter D. Andreoli, assistant district attorney, said a Connecticut player received $1,500 to shave points in the March game. Seton Hall players were involved in the game with Dayton, he added. He did not immediately identify any of them or say how many were involved.

The two men arrested were Aaron Waman and Joseph Hacken, both of New York.

They were charged with conspiracy to bribe a basketball player. Waman also was charged with attempting to bribe a detective.

Says Nat'l Farm Picture Bright

WEST MEMPHIS, Ark. (AP)—The national farm picture is bright and will grow even more so during the Kennedy administration, Sen. J. W. Fulbright (D-Ark.) said Thursday night.

Fulbright told a Tennessee-Arkansas American Legion meeting the export program of commodities already has reduced the farm surplus to manageable proportions. A treaty passed by the Senate Thursday "will clear up the problem even more," he said.

The new treaty puts the United States into a 20-nation organization for economic cooperation and development. Other members are Canada and 18 western nations in Europe.

Fulbright described the effect of the new organization as two-fold: "First, it will help us out of our gold outflow problem by allowing us to export more of our own products and, at the same time, the products we export will include big shares of our farm surpluses, thus helping us solve another problem."

14 Olympic Stars to End Indoor Meets

By LARRY FRIEDMAN
CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—Fourteen veterans of the Rome Olympics head a field of stars in the 21st annual Knights of Columbus games tonight, the final indoor track meet of the season.

The Olympic cast includes 10 Americans and one member of each of the Canadian, British West Indies, Puerto Rican and Hungarian squads.

A crowd of more than 8,000 at the Cleveland Arena will keep its eyes on Hayes Jones in the 50-yard high hurdles; George Kerr and Dave Mills in the 600 yd run; Jim Beatty and Ernie Cunliffe in the 1,000 yard run and Hungarian ace Laszlo Tabori in the two-mile run.

Jones, the former Eastern Michigan star who won a bronze medal in Rome, will aim for his 11th straight hurdles triumph and an unbeaten season. His competition will come from Don Slyron of Southern Illinois and Ben McRae, the Big 10 ruler from Michigan. Jones holds the world record at :05.9 seconds.

Kerr, the Jamaica star who set down the 600-yard world record of 1:09.3, will meet Mills for the first time this season. The husky Purdue junior, gaining maturity all the time, holds the indoor world mark in the 440-yard run.

Beatty and Cunliffe, a pair of California entrants, also meet for the first time over the 1,000-yard route. Beatty holds the U.S. mark for the mile (3:58) and 5,000 meters and has a great finishing kick. Cunliffe, a Stanford graduate student, set the world indoor mark of 2:07.9 for the 1,000 this winter.

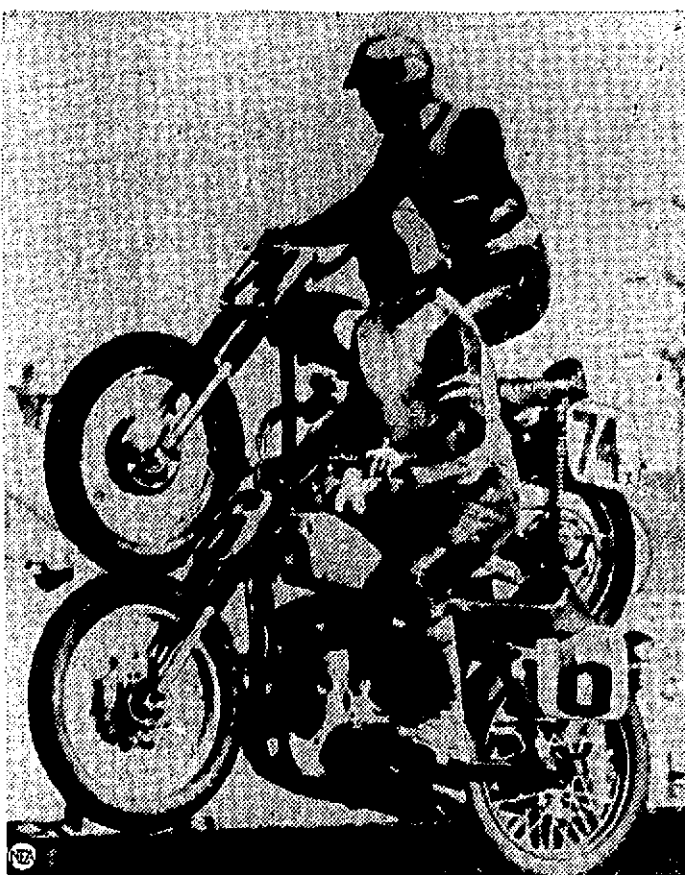

Tabori is a heavy favorite to repeat his two-mile triumph of last year. He holds the meet mark.

Records in Florida Meet Are Broken

By WHITNEY MARTIN
Associated Press Sports Writer

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP)—If old man par—he's 71—had a voice he'd be squealing with anguish at the Pasadena Golf Club today.

Seldom has the old man taken a beating such as he took in the opening round of the St. Petersburg open Thursday, and if the lashing continues in the second round of the $20,000 72-hole event today a 36-hole score of 140 will be lucky to survive the cut to the low 60 and ties tonight.

Two players — Jack McGowan and Billy Casper Jr.—shot 63s to lead the field and break the course record by a stroke.

Seventy-eight players, or about half the field were under par and 93 of the 159 entrants were par or better.

Casper had a six-under-par 29 for the home nine, and got his 63 despite two bogies.

McGowan, 30, assistant pro at Toledo, Ohio, who makes his home at Clearwater, Fla., got his 32-31 with 8 birdies and 10 pars. That 63 looked like it would stand alone until Casper, the former National Open champion from Apple Valley, Calif., plodded in with his 34-29 late in the afternoon to get a share of the lead.

Five contestants—Cary Middlecoff, Tommy Aaron, Don Fairfield, Gary Player and Frank Wharton—were tied at 66, and 13 were in the 67 bracket. The 68 class was padded with some 19 players.

It is estimated that South Dakota's Mt. Rushmore Memorial, featuring, Lincoln and Theodore Roosevelt will exist for 100,000 years without appreciable change.
